

The road we walk

The road we walk, with Ho - ly Spi - rit gui - ding, may take us There may be times in seek - ing God's di - rec - tion that we are Friend, do not seek the com - fort of fa - mi - liar - old tasks or 3

pla - ces we can - not con - ceive. — The Lord our God, in whom we are a - tempt - ed hard by doubt and fear. — To seek our com - fort o - ver new con - roles or pla - ces you have known, But in true faith press on toward what the bid - ing, calls on us all to trust and to be - lieve. — We may be nec - tion, to turn from call we do not want to hear. — But God does Lord asks, and you may find that yet your faith has grown. — Fight the good

6

9
called to leave our fav - orite dwel - ling place; we may be called to work we do not not a - ban - don us in time of change; the Spi - rit holds us, will not let us fight, keep faith and now com - plete the race! Take one new step, then take a - no - ther know; — But still we trust a - lone in God's a - fall. — No mat - ter how the path a - head seems too. — And e - ven more trust on - ly God's a - 14

12

ma - zing grace and find the faith we need to fol - low and to go. — dark or strange, our Lord will not a - ban - don you in this new call. — ma - zing grace and find the faith you need to fol - low and to do. —

TEXT: Charles Spence Freeman, January 2022

MUSIC: Tune LONDONDERRY AIR, Traditional Irish tune